

Sign Language Class Lesson # 4

Morning	Tired	Very	Face
Noon	But, However	Forget	Wash your face!
Afternoon	Help	House	Why
Midnight	Talk	Deliver	Year
All night	Bless	Throne	Old
Grow	People	Take	Real/True
Angry	Faith	Thirsty	Hope
Disgusted	Learn	Hungry	Maybe
Mad/Crabby	Student	Sin	Grace
Hate	Free	Wash	Find

Sentences to Practice

This morning my mother was angry.
At noon, I was hungry.
God hates sin.
Yes, I have three black books.
Give me one of your books.
Your mother looks mad.
The girl has a clean face.
Please come to my house.
This is a house of worship.
Maybe my mother will take me to school.
Why do you hate school?
The milk is free today.
God blesses people.
How old are you?
We will worship God forever.
I'm going home at noon.
I hope you find your Bible.
The girls talked all night.
The woman has a crabby face.
Do you understand me?
Your face is beautiful.
All sin is washed away by God.
We will kneel and pray.
Why are you tired?

I always forget my homework.
This afternoon I cleaned house.
In the morning I wash my face.
I hate mornings.
I am always tired.
God gives grace.
Worship God and faith will grow.
I am very hungry.
I am thirsty
I want coffee with milk.
Did you find my book?
I am a student at school.
The baby is very good.
God is on the throne.
Bring the coffee here.
Take the coffee to Grandpa.
Help me clean house, please.
I am disgusted.
The boys washed the car.
I am happy my grandmother is here.
No talking at school.
I am learning more and more.
The Angel of the Lord is here.
Deliver me from sin, Lord.