

Sign Language Class Lesson #5

Husband	Full	Restaurant	Money
Wife	Mercy	Waiter/Serve	Store/Shopping
Snow	Teach/Teacher	Hot Dog	Buy
Rain	Deaf	Hamburger	Stop
Chocolate	Hearing	French Fries	Fork
Church	Hard of Hearing	Coke	Spoon
Preach/Preacher	Hear	Pepsi	Pie
Sign	Pride/Proud	Soda	Cake
Sign Language	Handsome	Salt	Ketchup
This/That	Believe	Pepper	Make
He/She	Napkin	Cheese	Some
Say	Again	Slow	Hurry

Sentences to Practice

The preacher at that church is deaf.
My husband is hard of hearing.
What's the sign for b-o-r-i-n-g?
All the students are hearing.
All 6 children are friends.
What is the teacher's name?
I hear it will rain tonight.
Do you see that handsome boy?
Do you like hamburgers or hot dogs?
Will you have pie or cake?
Please give me a napkin.
The waiter forgot my fries.
This is a nice restaurant.
God is full of mercy and grace.
Please pass me the salt and pepper.
Come with me shopping.
I have a fork but no spoon.
Are you hungry?
I want some ketchup for my French fries.
I hope it will stop snowing by tomorrow.
I forgot my money at home.
Is she deaf or hard of hearing?
My wife is 32 years old.
Who is the teacher?

Hurry and eat!
Say that again, slowly.
She loves to drink hot chocolate.
The teacher is proud of her students.
Teach me some more signs.
Are you buying soda?
I like cheese on my hamburgers.
Do you see that sign at school?
Where do we sign?
Stop signs are always red.
I am learning sign language.
Do you believe in ghosts?
Today I saw a handsome boy.
Did you eat this morning?
Do you believe in Jesus?
You must feel full.
That hot dog made me sick.
My mother bought a Bible at church.
My father loves money.
I never have money.
Do you like Coke or Pepsi?
I don't want soda.
He wants more water.
The food is not free.